- Twelve and 18 LI-2's took off from Brandis airfield on 30 and 31 January respectively. The planes had not returned to Brandis up to 2 February. Only 35 IL-10's were parked on the field on that date.
- On 31 January, 17 LI-2's landed on Schoenefeld airfield. The planes were still stationed there on 3 February. It was not determined whether additional planes were parked in the hangars.
- According to a railroad employee, 23 boxcars, five converted boxcars and nine flatcars moved from Brandis to Gruenau on 28 January. Most of the troops on the train wore blue epaulets.

25X1 Comment: Gruenau is the unloading station for Schoenefeld airfield. It is believed that the transport regiment at Brandis was transferred to Schoenefeld after the former was occupied by a ground attack regiment from Dessau.
